7.30am, 12 November: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
17 November 2017: 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
First reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 16-18, 20, 26, 28-31; Second reading: Thessalonians 5:1-6;
Gospel: Matthew 24:36, 25:14-30

Reflection: Once again we have the imagery of the wedding banquet to which all are invited. But only those who live with an attitude of openness and readiness will be allowed inside. This parable stresses the need to live in the present with an eye on the future. Recall a time when you have had to invest a lot of time and energy into preparation for an event. Did this effort pay off? Can you also recall an occasion when you have neglected to do preparation that was necessary. What happened, and how did you feel during this occasion? No matter how well we plan, the unexpected will often crop up to throw all our efforts. Sometimes the unexpected can bring better things that we could have imagined. Do you find it easy to deal with the unexpected in your life? How well do you balance the spiritual and the practical aspects of your life? Think about the priorities in your life during this week and evaluate whether they need to be adjusted. Auckland Diocese

† Final chance to speak directly to Pope Francis before 2018 Synod: Next year will see a focus by the Catholic Church on young people, their views, thoughts and dreams for their faith and relationship with the Church. We had a wonderful response from youth in New Zealand with our own survey. As this year draws to a close, Pope Francis is giving young people a final opportunity to speak more directly to him, our Holy Father. Read more on Synod 2018 and take up this final chance before the Synod to be heard. Visit and complete the Synod 2018 survey before 30 November 2017 by visiting <http://youth.synod2018.va/content/synod2018/en.html>
